Northern Africa Outdoor Crusade & New Church: On August 15th we begin a ten day outdoor evangelism crusade in an Islamic country. All crusade services will be broadcast live over radio to more than a half million Muslims.

Located in the Sahara Desert, xxx is one of the world's largest countries both in geographic size and in the number of Muslim citizens.

at night and it is rare that I am finished before midnight. Members of our team will remain at the crusade site throughout the night as people continue to come for salvation. Every morning and afternoon we have teaching for the new Christians and our leadership team. Afternoons are also composed with radio broadcasts and meetings with local Islamic officials.

This crusade begins an intense time of ministry that is one of the most ambitious schedules we have ever had. The ministry will take me to the Horn of Africa, including the borders of Sudan and Somalia, and many parts of North Africa over the next four months.

This is a very volatile time in the Islamic world and I would appreciate your prayers for protection and safety in travel and ministry.
